PER MONTH.

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 30.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD (Including Postage):

93.50 cough, as if something had lodged in his

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as sec-

BRANCH OFFICES WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1287 BROADWAY, and he then steaded himself to say:

BEOOKLIN - 259 FULTON ST. HARLEM - ma'am. 'bout two News Department, 180 East 1257s St.; Adwhat ails him?" nts at 287 East 115TH St. PHILADELPHIA, PA.—LEDGER BUILDING, 112
SOUTH STR. WASHINGTON—610 14TR ST.
LONDON OFFICE—32 COCKSPUB ST., TRAFAL
Got co

The Evening World Prints Associ-

PREE DOCTORS' WORK BEGUN.

THE EVENING WORLD'S corps of free doctors started out on its annual mission of good yesterday. The physicians in a vigorous manner and replied: to him, and the man nodded his hes visited on this first tour 1,124 families. found last season and in the seasons before that. There was the same need of healing medicine and kindly advice.

Daily, from this time until the heated had a photographer on hand the other term has run its course, the corps will go day to take a view of his house. And, as out. You who have your own business usual in such cases, a crowd gathered to cares cannot take part in the actual work see the performance. The family came cares cannot take part in the actual work out and took seats on the steps or assumed a standing pose, and all was about plentiful, but the way is open through ready to "let or slide," when a ragged the Fund for you to aid in promoting the and wayworn old chap, with the remains

AN ANTI-QUAY MANIFESTO.

The spasm which has come over Philadelphia under the pressure of startling revelations concerning its trusted men and its finances has apparently extended into its politics. An address signed by nearly one hundred and fifty representative men and prominent Republicans. was made public last night, in which Senstor Quar and "the machine" are arraigned and denounced in no uncertain

Undoubtedly, the sentiments expressed in this manifesto have been entertained for a long period by the men who have now found courage to set them forth. These men appeal to the Republicans of the State in the emergency which calls for the finding of "a more competent and worthy leadership than that of Mr. Quax." The effect of the manifesto and the response to its appeal will be watched to oblegge, and some folks hain't. When for with wide-spread interest.

The steamship Montevidean had a fire and twelve tons of gunpower in its hold, all at the same time. It had no passongers, consequently no panic; and as the fire and powder didn't get quite together there was no blow-up. But what a startling "might have been" the incident makes for the crew to contemplate.

It seems that though the number of Hippolitin's victims may have been ex- that Slavin, after he has whipped Sullivan, will retire from the prize ring. aggerated the brutality of their execution has not been half described. If he tries the patience of the nations much further of rate has taken possession of a mulberry tree and the black Nero of Hayti may yet have are feeding on the fruit. No objection to saying the patience of the nations much further cause for a stronger hatred of foreigners than he now feels

That is a pretty romance from Chicago of the couple whose misunderstanding is cleared away after twenty years. But who can help feeling that a lover deserves twenty years, after all, who, knowing that his sweetheart lives in Milwaukee, is guilty of addressing his letter of proposal to Chicago?

The Board of Police Justices has uppointed a committee to investigate the bribery charges made against Essex Market Court officials. For year sins nuations have been current about dishonesty in police courts, and the question should now besettled once for all.

An uptown boy in a tree got an air. gun bullet in his eye from a female sharp. shooter who had previously confined her practice to the sparrows. She should be severely called off before she has any further opportunity of picking off any more human targets.

BULKELEY, of Connecticut, is reported to have said that he would be a candidate in '92 for nothing less than the Presidency. Probably he might have stopped with saying that he would be a candidate for nothing.

Foreign lottery tickets will be seized in our mails. This is a sad blow to Emperor WILLIAM, who had hopes of Americana garm helping out his new lottery scheme.

The necessity for capital punishment is illustrated by the attempt yesterday to hill a Sheriff by a man sentenced for muris curiy and goldon and her large eyes are blue-

Pennsylvanian aged one hundred and four years attempted suicide. He was afraid Death had forgotten him. It is hard to escape fate. A Pennsylvanian, while trying to avoid being shot, was run over and killed by a train.

Send in your mite for the Sick Babies'

How to Increase Sales.
[From the Free Free.]
Customer—Tell you how you could sel,

more strawberries. "Turn the boxes over and fill the othe

A Good Average. Young Nicely-Yes, I know I'm a great filst; strength of mind, merce, and tody, which means I suppose, Mins Smilax, that you think I'm a Hoof's flarespecials is said by all drugging the Co. I MOOD & CO., Levell, Mass. very hard-hearted wretch?

Miss Smillax—Yes, but your head brings the Press

SKETCHES BY

A Case of Cotton. A very aristocratic young lady, with a very aristocratic poodle-dog beside her,

he kept it up until the notice of a young

A Fair Offer.

right-I abee !"

tral figure in the group,

the man.

ouse, "you are in the way!"

rant you in the picture!"

"It won't cost any extra."

"You get out or I'll call an officer!"

SPOTLETS.

Canned regetables and city folks go together

Beaton is responsible for the story that a colon

A plate of cream, a lemonade

A Michigan fisherman after waiting hours for a oits got one and is now dead. Moral—tiaffs should be used in landing pickers).

broke the bank and left town $1,000 ahead.

can be gathered together, and rarely leses

Judge Gresham objects strenuously to wearing

The Amateur Farmer.

[From Brooklyn L(fr.)] Mr. Trotter, who has just moved into the burbs, writes as follows to our agricultural editor;

"Dear Sir-Which is the cheapest-lawn mower or cow?"

Out of Sorts

son or life. The stomach is out of order, the head aches or does not feel right, the nerves seem strained to their atmost, the mini is confused and irritable. This condition finds an excellent

Hood's Sarsaparilla

which, by its regulating and toning powers, soon restores harmony to the system, and gives that strength of mind, merves, and body, which makes World's Fair.

WORLDLINGS.

One of the largest nuggets of virgin gold eve

An icelerg and a chill or me when it's '90 in the shade, And rising, rising still,"

M. QUAD.

"Of course not!"

sisted the man.

shouted the artist.

let 'em knows it, too!"

man who had been drinking rather freely

Rut Much More is Reeded to Care for the Sick Babes.

was riding in a Broad way car the other Send In Your Dimes and Be One day when the dog began to wheeze and of the Life-Savers. throat. She soothed and patted him, but was attracted. A feeling of pity at once The Poor Tots Want Medicines, Clothing and Food. welled up in his eyes, and after a moment he got up and weaved back and forth across the aisle until he reached the dog.

l	"J.just the way I was taken myself,	THE SUBSCRIPTIONS:
	ma'am, 'bout two hours ago. D'ye know	Previously acknowledged	048,58
T	what ails him?"	Lul: Weller's Tes Party	5,60
ı	"N-no, sir," she stammered, in much	No Name	.80
1	confusion.	A. Nielson	50
1		A well-disposed Gentleman	.50
١	"Got cotton in his throat. Schooner	Bible Class	2.80
1	of heer will take it out in less'n two	Menko S. Stein	1.00
1	minits! Take him right in an' call f'r	A A	3.00
		Harold's Mamma	2.00
- 11	schooner-s-k-o-o-n-e-r-an' he'll be all	Mary Braid's collection	4.00
1	right. Shee me! I had whole bale cot-	A. B. C	1.00
1	ton in my throat and one schooner took	Penmes	.70
-16	it all away !"	Beatrice and Joe.	2.00
1		W. M.	. 50
ч	The conductor came in and took him	Philoprogenitiveness	.10
Я	out on the rear platform and whispered	Frank W. Farrell	1.00
П	to him, and the man nodded his head	M. B.	1.50
ч	in a vigorous manner and replied:	Lettie Bates	. 10
1		All your war product in the particular and the part	3.50
1	"Shertingly! shertingly! I shee how	All contributions for the Sick	Baby

There are the same scenes of wretched- it is. She can't stop in er shaloon f'r Fund should be directed to Cashier, ness and woe in the tenements as were schooner of beer, and will take him New York "World," Fulltzer Building. home and shend out er growler! It's all Packages containing clothes, &c., right—I shee!" West Thirty-fifth street.

The Sick Baby Fund has passed the first A citizen of De Kalb avenue, Brooklyn, thousand-dollar post, but much more is needed to supply even a small portion of the demand for doctor's services, medicine and food for the poor bables of this city. Not only money but clothing is needed for hundreds of little tots, who, since the day of their birth, have not known the luxury of a piece of soft linen or flannel, and to whom a nest little slip is an unfamiliar sight. You that are blessed with good health o of a red plush Wihter cap on his head to have bables that are well and hearty, think mark him from the common herd, stepped how you would suffer if your little son or out from the crowd and walked over and daughter were to be attacked with one of the stood up against the fence to form a cenmany Summer maladies and you were unable to procure a doctor's services.

That is just what is happening in hundreds ' Here, you!" called the man of the ouse, ''you are in the way!"

of homes at this moment. Mothers, worn in mind and body, are bending over sick infants, trying to relieve the little tots' sufferings as best they can. Those are the homes that the "But you must get away! We don't free doctors visit, and lift a burden of grief from the parents' shoulders. "Can't I be tooken wi'th the rest of There can be no better charity than that which is destined to help little children, and when you appreciate this fact let your hands work with your heart and send in something "But we don't want you!"

"I never was tooken in my life," perto raise the fund to the second thousand dollar post, which means life, health and happiness to hundreds of sick babies. Luiu Weller's Tea Party.

"Oh, well, if you are all going to be as techy and particular as this I'll get in aid of the Sick Babtes' Fund, which netted $5.60, and for which you will please find inout!" growled the man as he slid along the walk. "Some folks is willing enough they hain't I don't want nuthin' to do with 'em 't all. I feels above 'em, and I 517 Sixth avenue.

Gives His Salary. I am a little boy only seven years old, and every evening my mamma reads to me from our paper about the poor little sick babies, Baby Harold's Mother.

baby Harold's birthday, kindly find inclosed re feeding on the fruit. No objection to saying a feeding on the fruit. No objection to saying set to nid you in your grand undertaking. Should every citizen do likewise you would have no cause for a constant appeal.

Batter than tame borns of the fruit wild beach, L. 1. HAROLD'S MARMA.

Would Like to Give More To the Editor:
Inclosed please find $1 for the Sick Bubles'

Fund. Would gladly give more if able.

A. S. C.

A Young Merchant. We got a new heater. I send $1 1 got for the old one for the sick Baby Fund. 1 am

A gambling trust has been formed in Lower Culi-fornia, despite the fact that gambling must be con-ducted on a cash basis. eight years old. FRANK W. FARRELL, Jersey City. Collected from Classmates.

ormed and got $50 reward. With this $50 he Please accept $1.50 collected by my classnates and myself, of first primary grade, School No. 78, Brooklyn.

I wish all classes would collect to belp the Sick Bables' Fund.

M. B. The Hon. Jeremiah Rusk has been yelept "the Lottle's Earnings.

De the Edite Inclosed please find 10 cents for the sick found in America is in the passession of Mr. Alfred Berke, of St. Louis. It came from an Arizona mire and weighs a trifle more than thirty-seven Hackensack, N. J., June 27. ounces. There is very little alloy in the nugget and it is valued at $500.

Mary Braid's Collection

A stick of timber 111 feet long and 4 feet square has just made a safe railway journey from the State of Washington to Chicago. It weighed nearly 90,000 pounds, and three flat cars, each 34 feet in laugth were needed to carry it. The once dine tree. I. Karst Mrs. B. W. Blott, 25 cents; Friend, 25; Mrs. L. Karst, 25; Mrs. A. Irwin, 25; Dora A. Wil. L. Karst, 25; John F. Eden, 25; Mrs. Murray, 25; M. Hoffmann, 25; Humphrey, 25; E. Elseiy, 25; W. E. Firth, 25; Cash, 50; Mrs. J. Shellman, 25; H. Keith Shellman, 5; Cash, 20; ili be put to the base uses of a beer counter at the Senator Vest has the reputation of being the beet poker player in the Senate. He practices the game with great assiduits whenever a congenial crowd Gracie, 25; Cash, 10; Cash, 5;

Another Generous Druggist.

cents.

The Marquise Lanza, Dr. Hammond's literary take pleasure in offering to fill all prescripdaughter, is one of New York's pretty women. She tions sent by your doctors for 10 cents apiece. In the expectation that my propo-sition will be accepted, I have the pleasure to remain. F.E.Opansea, M. D., 173 Park How.

Medicines at Cost. Mr. Johnson, the druggist at 445 Grand street, has very generously agreed to fill all prescriptions for the Free Physicians at cost. This is a repetition of last year's kindness.

A Worse Time Coming Wife (to husband)-It strikes me that you re very hard on your trousers, John. Tommy (who is near by)—He isn't half as hard on them now, ma, as he will be when i get to wearing them.

Two Sick Boys. Little Dick-Mamma, I'm awful sick. Mayn't stay home from school? Mamma-Certainly. Lie down on the sofa. Little Dick (by the window half an hour ster)—Mamma, may I go out and play hop-cotch with Billy Bunce? He isn't at school Diannmora and desentery are averted during sething by Monnell's Treveling Company. 25c. ...

$1,000 IN THE FUND. THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR. CHANGES AT THE THEATRES. SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES. FUN IN BLACK AND WHITE, HE COULDN'T TASTE OR SMELL,

THE WORLD: TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 30, 1891.

Vienna Women Want Free Schools-Foreign Recipe for Devilled Salmon-Latest Things in English Styles Copied from the French.

Delight the Gentler Sex.

DEVILLED SALMON (Foreign Recipe),-Cu the salmon in slices one and a half inches thick; pepper them well, blind a large sage closed a check. I hope it will make some poor bables happy.

I send you a list of the names that kindly assisted me salling tickets: Annie Burnsides, Lottie Ludivici, Mamie Simmons, May Miller, Ella Roberta and Lizzie Burnsides.

LULU WELLER,

LULU WELLER,

bit Sixth avenue. with thin slices of lemon and serve with mustard or piquante sauce.

A meeting of women was lately held in Vienna, when it was decided to petition the Reichsrath that the middle and lower schools and I feel very sorry for them. I help my papa in his office and he gives me 50 cents a week, so I send two weeks salary, $1, for the poor children and I hope it will do some good. MENKO S. STEIN, 1500 Broadway. ment of their rights as such, without consideration for the amount of taxes they pay, and To-day being the first anniversary of our regardless of their position or sex, shall be entitled to equal and direct parliamentary suffrage.

The Seaside Summer Home of the T. W. C. A. of the City of New York at Asbury Park will be opened as usual this year. Applications from working women are already being filed at the Board Directory of the Association, where may also be obtained board and rooms at the Margaret Louisa Home of the Association and other safe places in the was put to enormous expense. At the end of that time Mr. Leslie declares that the goods were returned to him with apologies for a mistake. Association and other safe places in the city

In the last fifteen years of its existence Wellesley College has graduated about a hundred young women, most of whom took higher degrees. Of this number but few have married, the grandchildren of the alumnie numbering less than one hundred.

London is constantly importing French talent to get the exclusive styles for which French modistes are famous. Their wares ails bear the impress of Parisian taste, and y display novelties in the way of fashion and materials which will only be generally adopted in England months hence-possibly next year. A striped red and black skirt, had blue panel introduced with great effect. and especially admirable was a black veive jacket in the Louis XIII. style, with decided pockets, and riche fringes of jet with passe centerie. The sleeves were by no means Inclosed find $4 collected by me from my high, for that is a mode that triends. Many L Brain. is passing away. This jacket would look well worn with the red and black gown and its blue panel. Red is much in fashlon, and a red gown opens over a red underskirt diagonally, the bordering ornamented with buttons and simulated button oles of large size. The pliats were all fanshaped at the back, a favorite style. Medicis Judge Greekam objects strenuously to wearing the "judicial gown." He does not think that the garment adds dignity, and in his own case it doesn't, for he is one of the finest looking men on started on their mission of mercy, and desir.

Another Generals Druggies.

To the Filter

Seeing that the corps of Free Doctors have simulate a Swiss belt laced at the back. Large turn-down collars of lace and capes of the first desired on their mission of mercy, and desired on their mission of mercy, and desired on their mission of mercy and desired on the mercy and desired on th imulate a Swiss belt laced at the back. lace are fashionable, too. A charming gown for quite a young girl in mousseline de r chiffon, had paniers of lisse, bunche of violets catching up the draped flounce at the hem. Many fronts of evening gowns are made to cross over and disappear as it were in a panel. One of the most suc cessful long coats is made by this firm with double revers. The choice of materials is a large and varied one. Fronts of gowns are prepared of thin materials, with triple row of tace insertion let in; the hand-embroidered nets follow the universal Louis XV. style, th round black, with baskets in gold thread, illed with natural tinted flowers formed of jeweiled stones and united by true lovers' knots. Steel mingles with gold in some o these embroidered nets. The tints in the em-broideries and the woven fabrics blend most harmoniously.

Not as a Bule. [From the Chicago Pribune.] Grinnen—See that man across the street He's worth $100,000. Three years ago h badn't a cent. He is the inventor or th nanufacturer, I forget which, of a patent Sarrett-How much did you say he is Fads. Fashions and Fancies That Last Week of Grand Opera-House Giants Still Hold First Place by Illustrated Witticisms Culled from English Opera Season Begun.

> "Prince Karl" at the Garden-" Tar Granite Association Plans-Gossip and Tartar" Souvenirs. of the Athletic Clubs.

The changes at the theatres last night were very fill that she is obliged to teach sitting in an invalid's chair, she has offered three Linette as Inex, Bella Tomlins as Asucena. Champtonship standing up to to-day: months' instruction to the Kitchen free of charge.

Michelina as Manrico and B. K. Kinstein as Leave. Week Leave. Leave eighteen years. The Committee which deals | Lottle Gilson, Rose and Martin Julian, Clark with this bill has recommended its adoption. and Williams, James McAvoy, Musical Dale, Bellac and Aouda, Miss Belle Clifton, Carcy heavy financial loss to the members of the and Walton, and Monsieur Robert. At Koster Granite Association, of Hoboken, that it has 4 Bial's concert hall Carmencita danced and concluded to offer no more purses until the the Austin sisters, the Brantz brothers, Millie cold weather sets in, when it will run nothing son Square Garden Amphitheatre, and there was a souvenir performance of " The Tar and the Tartar" at Palmer's Theatre. By all of which it will be seen that while metropolitan theatredom is in a very low and debilitated condition it might still be worse.

> Frank Daniels, the eccentric comedian of "Little ruce" renown, has been negotiating for a long time with Robert Buchanan, or London, for a comedy. The cable was worked very vigorously, but no results were reached. So on Saturday Mr. Banleis sailed for England with W. J. Florence. He will visit Mr. Buchanan and make all arrangements for a play to be presented next season with "Little Puck." . . .

Let nobody henceforth doubt the extreme juvenility of Miss Marie Tempest. It is reported from London that she will not appear in "Miss Relyett," because-because she has the measles! What sacrifices some of the nice antique Rialto soubrettes would make it they could but successfully to the pricelessly infantile measles!

Miss Margaret Mather is said to be negoti-ating with Miss Ellen Terry for a one-act comedy that the Terry now has in her pos-session. Miss Mather is still abroad, but is expected home early in August.

George C. Jenks, a Pittsburg newspaper man, has been in the city making arrangements for an open-air production of "As You Like it." in Pittsburg. It will be the first production of the Arden comedy al freeco, out of this neighborhood. The date of presentation is July 16. Jeseph Haworth has been engaged for Orlando, and Miss Minna K. Gale and George Marion will probably play Ross-lind and Touchstone. Charles Hagar will be Jaques.

Mervyn Dailas is to present his hobby play,
The House on the Marsh," next Friday at Ticonderoga, N. Y., with all the modern disadvantages. . . .

Manager B. D. Stevens of "Wang" says that the feminine members of his company are now so conspicuous on the road in dogcarts, phaetons and such like, that he will have to do something of the kind himself, to save his reputation. He suggests taking the "Wang" elephant out for an airing. It would be a novel spectacle, at any rate. By the by, he "perfesh" was extremely well represented on the road on Sunday. There were Estelle Clayton and Isabelle Evesson, the comely sisters, in a brougham; there was Charles Frohman, Napoleonic and alone; there were bright, vivacious Nellie Lingard and onyxeyed Bijou Fernandez; there was Mrs. Leslie Carter, all by herself, and there was the energetic Teddy Marks, just returned from booming "Shenandoah."

When Robert Mantell produces "The Louis-ianian" next season, he will play the part created by E. J. Henley; Miss Charlotte Behrens will attempt the role so ably inter-preted by Miss Henrietta Lander, and Miss. Mario Sheldon (ye gods and little fishes) will be seen in the emotional part originally played by Miss Mary Hampton.

VACRANT VERSES The Ten-Cent Bank.

I have a bank of nickel plate.
For dimes of silver bright.
The contents are not very great.
But the scheme is out of eight I cometimes walk and beat the back,
I double on my livery hire. I miss a meal and charge it back; Of saving dimes I never tire. I crowd my "sundries" more and more I smoke a pipe from time to time, I swipe a paper from some store, I'd almost stat to save a dime.

My shoes are gray with mud and dust, The kids can soon my whiskers puil My ties are old, my linen mussed, But my bank will soon be full. Filt try bear and selse the pile,
For I: turies Pil apend it not.
But safe invest it with a smile
In opening up a small jack-pot.

- Omaha Bee.

How They Lie in Chicago man who wrote McGinty is something of anto the maiden who insists that she Compared onto the maiden who insists that she can paint.
Who shows you plaques and sketches, and oils and studies too.
And white you study what they are, awaits the praise that's due.

really makes you nervous, and you are not to blame nuttering some fool remark that fills your breast with shame. sooks so sweetly trustful, secure from harsh you cannot bear to tell her what your hones; judgment speaks.

So you lie to her like mixty; and she knows you're iring, too.

But it won't disturb her conscience, and she'll think the more of you. —Chicago Post.

She Couldn't Help It. "The Summah time agwess with me;"
He twirled a straw hat on his knee,
And presided to a little fairy.
"I quite pwefer it, dontcher know,
Eccanee the westchal makes it so
That we can weah what's light and airwy." The maid looked up with glance so sly.
And said, with twinkle in her eye
Quite visible to all beholders.
"Some people the opinion share assuredly digestible and wholesome.

a Slender Thread.

very few. The daring managers who keep ton fell by a score of s to 4. Long John Ewtheir houses open during the Summer did ing kept the Beancaters hits well neathered. fairly well, however. The weather was cool, white New York bunched its safe ones on Miss Juliet Corson is in Chicago teaching a and the weather is always half the battle. Clarkson. Brooklyn pulled a ten-inning game staff of hospital nurses domestic science in At the Grand Opera House the last week of away from Philadelphia by a score of 11 to 10 the Diet Kitchen just opened in connection the season of English opera was begun, with Chicago beat Pittsburg 8 to 3; Cincinnati dewith St. Luke's Hospital. Mrs. Edward the perminial "Trovatore" as the attraction. feated Cleveland 3 to 1. In the American Assickney, of that city, generously pays for one The opera was well sung, with Camille Muort sociation the following scores were made: year's teaching. Although Miss Corson is so as Leonors, Taglispietra as the Count di Boston, 7; Washington, 2. Athletics, 5; Balvery ill that she is obliged to teach sitting in Luna, Frederick Borneman as Perrandi, Miss timore, 4. Columbus, 11; St. Louis, 10.

The Slavin-Kilrain contest proved such a rice and Peggy Pryde appeared. There was but first-class fights and will endeavor to pull an admirable promenade concert at the Madi-them off at the rate of one a month. The Larchmont Yacht Club has chartered the steamer Alberina for the use of the mem-bers and guests of the club at the annual re-gatta on Saturday of this week. The steamer will leave the foot of East Thirty-first street at 8 a. M.

. . . The regular monthly shoot of the Diana Gun Club took place yeaterday at Dexter Park, L. I. C. Munch won first medal in Class A and J. Robertson took the medal in Class B.

Two match races have been arranged by Stephen Peabody. Fleet Captain of the New York Yacht Club. to be sailed within ten days after the New York Yacht Club's crules. One of the races will be between the cutter Huron and the schooner Marguerite, and the other between the schooner Marguerite and the schooner Iroquois.

The New Yorks went to Philadelphia this morning, where they will encounter Harry Wright's men in a series of three games.

The struggle for the tennis championship of Central Park was contested yesterday. The competitors were Dr. Theodore I. Townsend, holder of the championship, and J. Palmer Paret, winner of the tournament and challenger for the title. Mr. Paret got done up to the tune of 6-3, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4.

A prize fight to a finish took place at an early hour vesterday morning in Cambria County, Pa., between David Barry, of London, England, and Bill Jones, colored, of Philadelphia. It was witnessed by about one hundred sports from Philadelphia. They fought for $200 and the receipts, with two-ounce gives. Jones was knowled out in the thirm of Jones was knocked out in the third ro The Battalion of St. George Church held its

The Battalion of St. George Church held its annual Spring games yesterday at Rockaway Park, L. I. John Revella, scratch, won the 100-yard dash. Time, 11 3-5s. Frank Mitchell, scratch, won the 225-yard dash. Time, 26s. Joseph Sulzback, scratch, won the 440-yard run. Time, 55s. Joseph Sulzback, scratch, won the 880-yard run in 2nn. 20s.; Herman Anderson, 15 yards, won the mile run in 5m. 20s.; George Dowman, scratch, won the obstacle race. Emil Hack, scratch, in the running broad jump, cleared 14 feet 6 inches, and in the individual tug-of-war J. Henecke pulled George Ott 18 inches.

to revive roller skating at the Casino Skating Rink, at Coney Island. Klaborate prepara-tions have been going on for the past month to get the building in an attractive condition.

Manager Mutric says that Glasscock will join the Club at Pittsburg. A yacht race well worth seeing will be the annual sweepstakes race of the Corinthian Yacht Club, of this city, which is to be salled at Newport after the cruise of the New York Yacht Club.

The Ocean Yacht Club, which was organized last Sunday at Stapleton, S. I., will hold its first regatta on Saturday of this week. July 4. They are down to business in short

The International Angling Club, President weeks' fishing excursion on Monda;

A flight Mistake.

[From the Atlanta Constitution..]
"After the ceremony," wrote the rural editor, "the bride was halled and kissed by all, and given plenty of praise." But what was his horror when he read to notice in the paper the next day: " After the session the bride was jailed an hissed by all, and the scrapple couple give twenty days."

"What Am What?" [From the Washington Post.]
"What's discher?" said Simpson Doolittie s he looked across the table where a little game was in progress. · What am what?" asked Jackson Snules. "Er minit ergo you done had numn' but white an' red chips, an' now you done got blue ones." "I kep' 'em in mer pockit." stammere

Jackson. "Mebbe you did; but lemme tell yer, doan yer let it happen no moh. Et you thinks you is gwine ter bring any Cranberry Troft per-ceedin' in dissher alley you is mistaken, you listen ter me."

Something Worth Knowing. [From an Exchange.] Book Agent—If you'll buy this book, sir, I'll guarantee that you'll learn one thing that will save you lots of money.

Man of House-I'll take it. What will it "Never to buy another book from a book agent." No Restrictions [From Good News.] Little City Boy-Don't you wish you was

Mrs. Brownston? Mamma-Why? Little City Boy-She don't have to live in a flat. She's got a whole house to horself and she can have just as many children as she wants.

For Summer Cookery Royal Baking Powder will be found the greatest of helps. With least labor and trouble it makes bread, biscuit and cake of finest flavor, light, sweet, appetizing and Various Sources.

[From Puck.]

Jersey Mosquito-This is what I call hard luck. I have bored through this in seventeen places, and there isn't a man inside after all. Castles in the Air.

Insurance Agent (to his partner)-What shame animals can't insure their lives! Think what a business we could do among cate-each of 'em has nine lives!

The Boston Girl's Task.

· You look tired, Athenia.

A Proper Precaution.

The Cosmopolitans were not in it with the Canadian cricketers yesterday at clifton, and they were beaten with ease in one inning by Hanks—Oh, yes! The public must be protected, you know.

Abandoned.

[From Light.] Police Captain-Why have you brought this shaver here? Officer-He's an abandoned youth. Police Captain—so young, and already de-prayed! Officer—No; his parents seem to have de-serted him.

Botany in the City. [From the Detroit Free Press.]
Tommy—Pa, what are those men putting into the ground?

Father-Au electric light plant, my son. Tommy-What species does that plant be ong to, pa† Pather—Considering the number of funerals aused by overhead wires, it ought to belone o the "bury" family. Well Utilized.

[From the Pittsburg Bullstin.] Chawles-What have you done with that Iwendful paish of new twousabs, my boy? Dolphins—Sold to a life-saving station on he Jersey coast. They can be heard fosh miles from shoah and they cost them less Only a Demonstration

[From an Exchange, ]

Briggs-Heard there was a big row between you and Simpson at the Board meeting yes Wilson—It wasn't much of a row. I merely said that Simpson was an idiot. Briggs—What did Simpson do? Wilson—He got up and proved it. A Horse's Fears.

"You can recommend this horse, then ?"
"Certainty; he is as kind as can be, and there is only one thing that he's afraid of."
"What is that ?"
"He's afraid somebody will say whoa to bim and he won't hear it." Has Advantages, [From Prek.]

"I tell you, Bill," said Smoky Mike, the burgiar, "we hard-workin thieves don't make haif as much money out o' the business as them dude bank presidents and Pennsylvania officials."
"That's so, Smoke," returned Bill. "An' that just shows the value of eddication, which I has frequently remarked."

Poor Old Chicago. [From the Reston Courier.]

Ethel—Now, don't tell me, Bob, that you really care anything for that Miss Cornboef from Chicago.

Bob—Sister Ethel, if the whole great world were mine. I'd gladly lay it at her feet.

Ethel—Well, they'd need it.

Cowed the Old Man. [From Good News. ] Father (threateningly)-I've a great mind to hrash you. Little Son—Take a man of yer size. Take Father trembles at the thought, and sits

IT WAS VERY NECESSARY FOR MR CABLE TO DO BOTH IN BIS

BUSINESS. He Says He Had Cotorrh and that Dre. McCoy and Wildman Restored Both Beness and Cured Him Thoroughly, Although Other Eminent Pho in This City Said Be Couldn't Be

85 A MONTH UNTIL JULY 1.

DOCTORS McCOY and WILDMAN.

THE GLEANER he Park Avenue Hotel last night that seemed amiliar. It belonged to Lieut.-Gov. Jones. He would not talk politics, but said he was here to speak at the laying of the Bushwick Club's corner-stone in Brooklyn this afternoon.

George S. Ricc. of the New Aqueduct Commission, has fallen into a nice berth. Boston's Rapid Transit Company offers him $10,000 a year, and he will accept.

Mr. and Mrs. Bronson Howard arrived on the Ems yesterday. They had with them four dogs, a cat and a parrot. Persons who visit the office of the Corporation Counsel often ask why Messenger Brady is almost always found with a big bottle of ink in his hand. Those who have seen Corporation Counsel Clark write his signature inderstand this apparent phenomenon.

Will some public school pupil inform me here "Tusco County, N. Y.," is 7 I notice an announcement on flaming canvas in front of a Bowery museum that the "Eighth wonder-of the world " comes from there.

Brady is kept busy replenishing the inkstand.

A London coach-building firm advertises to-day that unless Mr. B. Van Steenberg takes away the brougham left with it in 1890 the carriage will be sold. There is a contractor of that name in this city.

I notice that old Robert Crozier is dead He was one of the land marks of the Eighth Assembly District, and those who remember the Volunteer Fire Department knew him well and will mourn bim.

Frank Meibourn, the rain machine inventor, ow claims that he will make rain fall over 70,000 miles of territory. He is described as ulte mild looking.

A Stay of Proceedings. (From Money's Weekly, 1 She (sweetly)—The moonlight is beautiful o-night, George.

He (desperately)—I know it is, Nelle, but fan't propose to-night—I forgot the ring.

Tou will forgive me, won't you?

A Sweet Line. [from the Epoch.] Cumso-Here's something very sweet in the Mrs. Cumso-Is it a poem? Oh, read it to me, please, dear: Cumso (reading)—Twenty pounds of granus lated sugar for $1.

[The Rider and Driver.] A-Jones seems to be riding his borse to death. I wonder whether he'll notice that sign, "Refreshment for Man and Beast," and sign, "Refreshment for Man and Beast," and go int B—He may; but in his case it will be re-treshment for two beasts.

There isn't any "just as good" as ewspaper.

in five mir utes by Knapp's 5 minute

Don't be persuaded to take any other. 25 cents a bottle